

Primary development effect: all point estimates are negative

